

Western Reserve Spinners and Weavers Guild presents a 2-day workshop with Janet Dawson

Yer Granny's Overshot

March 28 & 29, 2020

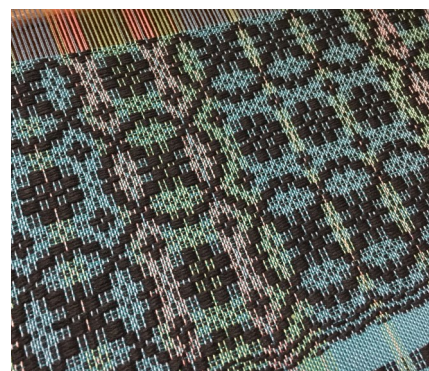

This round robin workshop will cover overshoot basics like identifying blocks, tromp-as-writ, star vs. rose fashion, and opposites. With that foundation, we'll move beyond traditional patterns and treadling to variations like Italian, flamepoint, swivel, petit point, shadow, treadled as lace, and more. If time allows, we'll also look at name drafting and other methods of designing original overshoot patterns for four shafts.

The cost of our comprehensive overshoot workshop includes pre-wound warps and weft, as well as substantial handouts.

As a girl, Janet Dawson sifted through her grandmother's yarn drawer to wind up the tangled skeins into tidy balls. She now teaches weaving throughout the Canadian Maritimes and the U.S. and writes for publications such as Handwoven and Fibre Focus. She is also a popular teacher on Craftsy. Based in Nova Scotia, Canada, her shop, The Bobbin Tree, specializes in weaving, spinning, knitting and other textile crafts. She eagerly runs to the shop whenever a cruise ship rolls into town, allowing her to meet would-be weavers from around the world.
